HIV, AIDS, or HIV-Related Illnesses: Articles 3.70-3A Texas Insurance Code; Section 3.3057(d), Exhibit A, Subchapter S, Title 28, Texas Administrative Code		Not covered.

I also understand that if I purchase a health plan that excludes or reduces coverage for a certain condition, I may be limiting my ability to obtain individual insurance coverage for that condition, in the event the health of any individual covered under the plan changes. I understand that I may obtain from the Department of Insurance a consumer brochure with more information on Consumer Choice Health Benefit Plans, either by visiting the TDI website at www.tdi.state.tx.us/consumer/indexc.html, or by calling 1-800-252-3439.

Supplemental Accident Coverage

Most of our members choose to add a supplemental accident policy to their main coverage. These plans, available through separate insurance companies, cover 100% of the expenses related to an accident or injury after a $100 deductible.

Because accidents are the most common reason most people end up using their health insurance, having a supplemental accident plan can greatly reduce your exposure for just a small additional monthly premium.

Any amount that the accident plan pays can go toward paying qualified expenses that contribute to your deductible on your health insurance plan. So if you carry a high deductible on your health insurance plan and are hospitalized for an accident, it is likely that your accident plan would cover all but $100 of your health insurance deductible.

We offer two different level accident plans. One plan has a $5000 accident limit, the other has a $10,000 per accident limit. Monthly premiums are only $22 for the individual $5,000 plan, $35 for the family $5,000 plan, or $34 for the individual $10,000 plan and $47 for the family $10,000 plan. Payment can be made via credit card or automatic bank draft.

Please fill out either the $5,000 or $10,000 accident application, and submit it along with your health insurance application.
